Copyright Transfer Agreement

Feb. 4, 2013

Dr. Dragan Vasiljevic
Associate Professor
Computer Integrated Manufacturing and Logistics,
FOS (Faculty of Organizational Science)
University of Belgrade.

Dear Dr. Vasiljevic:

I am pleased to inform you that the Institute of Industrial Engineers (IIE) wishes to publish your article, which was electronically submitted under the title "How to Improve the Logistics And Maintenance Knowledge Transfer Using LCI" (also referred to herein as "the work"). Upon your acceptance, this letter of agreement will constitute a transfer of this original work to IIE. The copyright transfer guarantees IIE's right to edit, design, publish, and disseminate the material to the fullest extent; restricts use by third parties who might illegally profit from the investments that IIE has made in its publications; and protects the author from illegal distribution of the information within the work. To ensure that this copyright transfer is possible and to conform with U.S. copyright laws, it is requested that the copyright of the work be held by IIE.

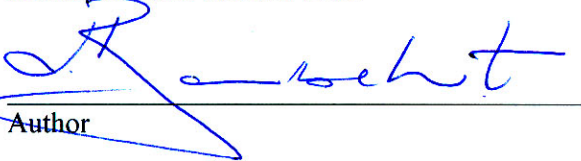

Your acceptance will further signify that you represent and warrant that you are the sole author(s) and sole proprietor(s) of all rights in and to all portions of the aforementioned work; that the work is original and not in the public domain; that it has not been previously published; that it does not violate or infringe on any personal or property rights of others, whether common law or statutory; that it contains nothing libelous or otherwise contrary to law; and that you have full power to enter into this agreement.

Your acceptance will also constitute your agreement that the work contains no material from other works protected by copyright that has been used without the written consent of the copyright owner, and that you have provided (or are simultaneously providing) IIE with copies of all such written consents required by this sentence.

If you agree to these terms, please sign this letter of agreement and return it to me at your earliest convenience. You may send it to the address in the letterhead or fax it to my attention at (770) 263-8532. We very much appreciate your support of IIE and its publications.

Sincerely,
Michael Hughes
